2013 Great American Teach-In

Students from Dr. Frank Pyrtle III’s Thermodynamics and Heat Transfer classes participated in the Great American Teach-In in November 2013. Those 19 students participated at various elementary, middle, and high schools in Hillsborough and surrounding counties. As students representing USF, they took opportunities to positively affect the lives of youths in our community by sharing their experiences and interacting with them in their school environments.